

PHRASEOLOGY IS ALL THAT REMAINS TO BE SOLVED IN TREATY

Treaty for the Limitation of Armament is Nearly Ready for the Signatures by Five Great Powers—Will Not Attempt to Limit or Regulate Aerial Warfare at Present

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Only details of technical phraseology remain to be worked out before the treaty for limitation of armament is ready for signature by plenipotentiaries of the five great powers.

Passing today on its last question of policy, the armament committee of the Washington conference decided against any present attempt to limit or regulate aerial warfare.

Then each of the five delegations, meeting separately, began an examination of the tentative treaty draft prepared by the sub-committee of experts. The delegation heads are to come together tomorrow to compare opinions and it is expected that the complete text will be ready for publication at a plenary session of the conference Thursday or Friday.

Questions of definition particularly with reference to the status of merchant vessels in war time, are understood to be the chief concern of the delegates. Some features of the merchant ship problem already have been cleared away.

WALLACE TELLS WHAT IS NEEDED FOR AGRICULTURE

Railroads Must Reduce Costs of Operation

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 9.—To bring about a normal adjustment in agriculture and, thru it, in industry, railroad deficits "must be met by reductions in operating costs rather than by advance in rates," Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture declared in an address tonight before the Traffic Club of Philadelphia.

"Agriculture," he said, "urgently needs the adjustment of freight rates on farm products to a point at which they bear about the same ratio to the price the farmer received for those products as prevailed before the war."

It would be better for all interests, the secretary continued, if during the reconstruction period a general price level about sixty percent above the pre-war normal could be established and prices brought up to this level rather than that other prices be forced down to the level of agricultural products.

But this seems impossible at present, he said, so "other prices must come down as agricultural prices come up until the normal relation is restored."

An "inefficient agriculture and an 'efficient' transportation system, Mr. Wallace declared are indispensable to the national welfare and are dependent upon one another.

"It would be unfair," he continued, "to say that the unprecedented depression in which we find agriculture today is due wholly to the very large increases in freight rates which have been imposed during the past three years, but it is said today that these increased freight charges are a large factor in retarding agricultural recovery. If prices now received by farmers for their crops were such as prevailed in 1919 and the earlier part of 1920, they could pay the increased freight rates without serious inconvenience.

"The trouble now is that, whereas the prices the farmer receives for his crops are lower than before the war, the price he pays for the things he needs are from twenty-five to 75 percent above the pre-war prices. Hence, the purchasing power of the major farm crops is probably lower than at any time in our history, and this has very much to do with the nationwide industrial and business depression.

"It is doubtful whether agriculture can make a complete recovery for many years unless the normal ratio between the prices the farmer receives for his crops and the freight rates he pays is re-established very soon."

WOMAN AND HER FATHER-IN-LAW KILLED

East St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 9.—Mrs. Clara Richwine, aged 35, and her father-in-law, William Richwine, 74, were found shot to death in the family home here late today. The woman's nude body was found on the dining room table with two bullet holes in her head.

NEWBERRY MAKES HIS FIRST PLEA IN OWN BEHALF

Tells Senate Has No Knowledge of Unlawful Acts

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Standing at his place in the senate and speaking publicly for the first time in his own defense, Senator Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan, declared today that with God as his witness he was not to this hour conscious of a single act—unlawful, dishonorable or corrupt—in his campaign against Henry Ford in 1918. For half an hour Mr. Newberry read a prepared speech without interruption. And then when he had concluded, for half an hour more he was subject to cross-examination at the hands of Senator Walsh, a Democratic member of the committee which in a minority report held he was not entitled to his seat.

How Senator Newberry came thru the trying ordeal was viewed by the most part thru partisan eyes. His Republican friends were jubilant. Many Democrats asserted that Senator Williams of Mississippi had about expressed their view when he characterized the Michigan senator's defense as "full of evasions."

Ready with gavel in hand to stop any demonstration, friendly or otherwise that might break with the end of the senator's hour of the vice-president put it quietly in place again for there was no outward evidence of how the members and the big crowds in the galleries felt.

Unaccustomed to public speaking, Senator Newberry read clearly and distinctly, first announcing that he could no longer remain silent, and that he would not suffer interruptions but would gladly yield for questions when he had reached the end of his statement.

There had been intimations that he would be the center of a hot fire of questions, but only Senator Walsh interrogated him after he had read his speech.

Sensor Walsh wanted to know why a statement like that just given to the senate, had not been made before why he did not appear.

"I did not appear on the stand at the Grand Rapids trial, because I was what the lawyers might call a good client," said Senator Newberry, his voice carrying clearly. The faces of his friends sitting near lighted up.

"I followed the advice of the lawyers in charge of the case, who said I had no information to give," he continued. "I did not volunteer before the senate committee for the reasons I have stated."

Then pressed as to why he had not made a similar statement in response to a letter from his state Senator Newberry shot back that he saw no reason why he should encourage his political critics in their efforts to defeat him.

Friends of the senator claimed tonight that his speech had made a "fine impression" and that two or three Republicans, classed as doubtful were ready to vote to send him. The vote may be taken Wednesday.

Five other speeches on the Newberry case were made during the day. Senators Tramel, Williams and Heflin, of Alabama spoke against Senator Newberry, and Sterling, South Dakota, in his favor.

Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho is expected to speak tomorrow in opposition to the Michigan senator.

There was a dramatic turn when Senator Williams, swinging on his heel and facing half a dozen of his colleagues, asked if they believed the Newberry statement, filed with the senate, in which Mr. Newberry said he had no knowledge of contributions and expenditures, beyond the figure named.

"Is there a man within sound of my voice who believes it?" Senator Williams asked. "It is a horrible thing to accuse a gentleman of perjury. Do you believe it? You know it is as false as hell."

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Postmaster General Hays in a letter to Chairman Nelson of the senate judiciary committee today expressed opposition to making it an offense for newspapers to publish a section to this effect be stricken from the bill recently passed by the house and sent to the senate which would prevent among things transportation of lottery and cheating thru the mails.

In his letter today Postmaster General Hays declared that a ban on lottery and cheating devices was desirable and that he favored the bill as a whole. His objection he emphasized was to a section on publishing racing news.

GEORGE HARVEY IS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT MONDAY

Ambassador to Great Britain Suffers Slight Injury

(By The Associated Press)

CANNES, Jan. 9.—George Harvey, the American ambassador to Great Britain who was injured in an automobile accident this morning, had recovered to such an extent this evening that his physicians said he probably would be able to attend Thursday's session of the supreme council.

Any fear that complications might develop from Mr. Harvey's injuries were dispelled this evening by an examination made by the doctors, who said that thirty six hours of rest and quiet probably would be all that is necessary for the patient's complete recovery.

David Lloyd George, the British premier, and M. Briand, the french prime minister, both visited Mr. Harvey during the day.

Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador to France, was named to replace Mr. Harvey today in the supreme council.

Scores of telegrams and cable despatches from the United States and Europe reached Mr. Harvey tonight. Among the first to come from the United States was one from the secretary of state, Mr. Hughes. Mr. Harvey has already replied to some of them.

The accident to Mr. Harvey was the most discussed event in the day among the various delegations here. There was much satisfaction over the fact that Mr. Harvey acted immediately to provide another American representative, Mr. Herrick, in his stead. This was interpreted as meaning that the United States is more interested in the present session of the supreme council than was the case in the previous ones.

WOMAN ACQUITTED FOR KILLING HER DRUNKEN HUSBAND

Woman Says She Shot in Self Defense After Threats

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Mrs. Bertha Autschbach, who shot and killed her husband, Henry Autschbach yesterday, when he returned home crazed with moonshine liquor, was acquitted by a coroner's jury today. The verdict was justifiable homicide.

The woman stated she shot in self defense, after her husband had several times threatened her while drunk.

Coroner Peter M. Hoffman who conducted the inquest in person ordered an investigator to the places where Autschbach was alleged to have obtained liquor while the inquest was in progress. The investigator reported that the places were locked up and the proprietors missing. Further investigation was ordered following the coroner's announcement yesterday that he would urge prosecution of murder charges of those who deal in poisonous liquor.

RUSSIA TO BE REPRESENTED AT CONGRESS

Announcement Was Made to This Effect Monday

(By The Associated Press)

CANNES, Jan. 9.—Official announcement was made today that soviet Russia would be represented at the forth-coming economic conference to be held at Genoa.

This information was contained in a wireless dispatch received by the supreme council before a formal invitation to the soviet government had actually been drawn up and the speed with which the Russians have replied to the announcement that they were to be invited was construed to mean that they are keenly desirous of joining with the nations on almost any terms acceptable to the allies.

Simultaneously with making public of Russia's intention to have representation at Genoa it became known that the German delegation headed by Dr. Walter Rathenau, will arrive in Cannes Wednesday to discuss the question of reparations with the supreme council.

The reparations experts and the committee dealing with the proposed international financial corporation today outlined their program which comprises a vast effort for European reconstruction. The reparations experts decided that Germany should be asked to pay 720,000,000 gold marks in 1922, and at least an equal sum annually afterwards.

The economic committee decided upon an international corporation with a capital of 2,000,000 pounds with its seat in London and with a board of directors nominated by affiliated companies in each interested country.

Will Organize Corporations

These countries including the United States will organize corporations for promotion only with a combined capital equivalent to 20,000,000 pounds. These corporations will serve as mediums for credit transactions and facilitating activities of private enterprises in all countries where the business field now is obstructed by lack of credits and disorganized financial systems.

This plan presupposes the organization of affiliated companies in Germany as well as in the United States.

There remains to be settled the question what should be the French share in the German reparations payments. M. Briand, the French premier today asked the supreme council to give him time to consult with the French commission of the French chamber of deputies and probably will give his final answer tomorrow.

There seems to be little doubt in either French or British circles that the conference will not adjourn until a pact has been agreed upon by France and Great Britain which will give the security to France that she has demanded ever since the peace conference. French circles tonight seemed very much relieved over the prospects of an accord that will permit France to make an immense saving in the upkeep of her army while the same time removing her preoccupations concerning her eastern neighbor.

There are indications that the question may be settled more easily than had been expected, the British showing less opposition to dealing with the followers of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish nationalist leader. In well informed sources it said the settlement may be in the nature of an extension of the Franco-Turkish accord to Great Britain and Italy.

CHARGE OFFICIAL WITH PROTECTING AUTOMOBILE THIEVES

Is Made in Massachusetts Supreme Court

(By The Associated Press)

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 9.—The charge that District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier was a member of a confederacy organized to protect a coterie of automobile thieves was made today in the support for the removal of Pelletier's removal. It came during the presentation of evidence concerning the charge that Pelletier had improperly neglected to prosecute George T. Perry for alleged automobile thefts.

The Perry case was reached after the state had concluded the Emerson Motor's case with evidence of the records of Pelletier's bank account showing a deposit of $5,000 in bills subsequent to the withdrawal of the same amount by Daniel H. Oakley, an attorney who had received a $15,500 fee for "averting prosecution" of the Emerson company in connection with its sale of stock in Boston. Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, senior counsel for Pelletier, resisted efforts of the prosecution to introduce the bank records.

DEVALERA RESIGNS; IRELAND WITHOUT ANY GOVERNMENT

Proposal for His Re-Election to Office is Defeated—Must Get New Officers Before Government Can Function—Collins Says That Loans to the Republic Will be Paid

(By The Associated Press)

DUBLIN, Jan. 9.—Ireland tonight is without a government of its own. Eamonn DeValera resigned from the presidency and the proposal for his re-election to that office, which includes the office of premier, was defeated in the Dail Eireann by a vote of 60 to 58.

Mr. DeValera made it clear that all the members of the ministry whether they voted for or against the treaty, went out of office with him.

Least there should be any doubt, William Cosgrave, minister of local government, who daily, he said, was sending out letters from his department to Irish public bodies, asked if all that was to stop. DeValera replied that it must stop until the successors of the former ministers were appointed.

Cheering followed the announcement of the figures. Both Griffith and Collins were quick to pay tribute of admiration to Mr. DeValera, while the whole assembly arose and applauded him.

A noteworthy feature of Mr. DeValera's later statement was that talk of fratricidal strife was all nonsense; the Irish people would know how to conduct themselves.

The course to which the former president after his defeat urged his opponents was to appoint a president in his place and let that president appoint his own ministers. He accepted defeat in good spirit and pledged his support to the new government so long as it was marching along the road to Irish independence. He explained that his reason for assenting to a motion for his re-election were to keep a reserve power in the interests of the Irish Republic behind the men in contact with the British ministers.

It soon became evident that the supporters of the treaty were not anxious to submit any name for the presidency. Richard Mulcahy, chief of staff, recalled that the Dail had got along for a considerable time without any president. Eventually Michael Collins, submitted a motion which he had been prevented from moving as an amendment to the motion for DeValera's re-election that the Dail should request Arthur Griffith to form a provisional government.

This did nothing to clear the situation and Mr. DeValera kept insisting frequently pressing his argument that they must act constitutionally. He objected to the creation of any alternative government which would suppress the Dail.

Mr. DeValera's words to support the new government were echoed by several of his Republican followers. Mrs. MacSwiney, Liam Mellows, David Kent and others displayed a determination to fight out the Republican cause.

Mr. Collins apparently thought they could summon a ratifying body of members from southern Ireland, including the four members representing Trinity College. They could call it the Dail Eireann until somebody knowing well could find a better name for it.

This was immediately countered with the reminder that the Trinity College members would not take the Republican oath.

Finally John J. O'Kelly, minister of education, argued that Mr. Collins' motion was in order because no notice had been given.

The speaker sustained the argument.

Thruout the debate Mr. Collins showed that he realized the possibilities of a misunderstanding of their first steps as a provisional government. Some of them, of course, would have to go to Dublin Castle if only to find out what was there. He drew a parallel between their entry into Dublin Castle and the entry of General MacReady, commander-in-chief of the British forces into the Mansion House. The question of the Republican funds was ventilated lengthily.

Replying to Harry Boland, Mr. Collins made it plain that loans collected for the Republic would be paid in accordance with the terms of the bonds; he would regard it as a breach of the treaty to object to this course. He declared that his side in their opposition to their colleagues had not used a penny of the Republican funds and hoped that the other side could say the same.

Incidentally in claiming credit for the efficiency of his finance department he revealed the fact that the members of the Dail Eireann receive compensation for their services. He said his accounts were complete despite all pressure up to December 1, and the only irregularity consisted in paying weekly wages up to January 1, for which there had not been time to obtain authority from the Dail in the ordinary way. He suggested that the funds in the future should remain in trust in the hands of the existing trustees, those including Monsignor Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe and Mr. DeValera.

GEORGE W. PEPPER NAMED BY SPOUL FOR U. S. SENATOR

Well Known Attorney Succeeds Late Senator Penrose

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 9.—George Wharton Pepper, widely known Philadelphia lawyer, who was appointed United States senator by Governor Sproul to succeed the late Boise Penrose, will be a candidate for the entire Penrose term expiring in March, 1927, he announced today. The appointment held good until the November election. Mr. Pepper, it is expected, will be a candidate at the May primary for the nomination.

Mr. Pepper's announcement, coupled with a statement by the governor that he expected Mr. Pepper to be a candidate for the complete term, ended speculation as to whether Mr. Sproul would himself run for the office this year.

It had been expected in some quarters that he would be a candidate for senator, and, if elected, take the seat after his term of office expired next January. Mr. Pepper in a statement said the tender of the senatorship had been made without any restriction, express or implied, upon his freedom of choice respecting term of service. The governor in his announcement asked for full support for Mr. Pepper in the hope that he may remain in the senate and be given an opportunity to render superb service.

Mr. Pepper left for Washington tonight and will be sworn in tomorrow.

The list of candidates for nomination for county officers is increasing. The primary is fully 3 months in the future but it is safe to prophesy now that the election will be one of the most interesting in the history of the county, with an excellent list of possible officers offered to the voters for their selection.

Major Haynes, prohibition officer for the nation, makes very sensible statements about the law and does not rant in any analytical way. His statements and arguments give quite convincing proof that the law and law against prohibition is largely the result of wet propaganda, with the hope of bringing about the passage of a law satisfactory to the wet contingent.

The proposed program of aiding home builders in Jacksonville is practical. People without some money cannot expect to build and even with a part of the necessary funds they cannot build unless the remainder is secured in a loan.

The local building association was organized for the purpose of lending money on building projects that offer safe security. If persons with money to lend are willing to buy building association stock there is no reason why every legitimate demand for a building loan cannot be met.

What has become of the cold winter that so many weather prophets talked about? The open winter of 1920-21 and the extreme hot summer following gave grounds for cold weather prophesies, but they have not been fulfilled.

Ten years ago just at this time the thermometer was ranging about 40 degrees lower than at present. It's a fortunate thing for the poor and even those of moderate means that such temperature does not prevail now, with present fuel prices in effect.

A repetition of the weather of ten years ago would mean not only hardship but suffering.

The banks of Jacksonville will hold their elections of directors and officers today in accordance with the law, which fixes the time for holding such elections. Jacksonville is fortunate in its banking institutions and in these days with difficult banking conditions it is not out of place to call attention to the soundness of the local banks.

They make the foundation of business, and while they could not prosper without the support and co-operation of the people, nevertheless without these solvent, well managed banks there would be business chaos. Very few cities of this size have equal banking solidity.

PENROSE AND POPULAR ELECTIONS.

Like many another man in public life, Senator Penrose never repented individually to his critics but when popular election of Senators was adopted he went on the hustings and replied to all of his critics at once. He defeated his leading opponent by 251,000 votes and received practically as many votes as both of his opponents together. That wasn't so bad a result for a man who was supposed to hold his position by virtue of political machination rather than by popular support.

No amount of political dictation can gain a man an election by 251,000 plurality unless he really has the approval of the people. In his second campaign before the people in the election of 1920, Penrose won by a vote of 1,000,000 against 400,000, to put it in round numbers. A man who can get an endorsement like that from his home people does not need to answer his critics.

G. H. LANE'S DEATH CAME VERY SUDDENLY

Well Known Politician and Insurance Man Died at Alton from Apoplexy—Recently Appointed Postmaster.

A message received here Monday afternoon by C. Y. Rowe told of the sudden death of G. H. Lane, postmaster of Alton, at his home there. Mr. Lane's death came suddenly after only a very few hours' illness. Mr. Lane suffered a stroke of apoplexy from which he died instantly.

The deceased was a director of the Cloverleaf Life & Casualty Co. and had been associated with the company from its very beginning. For a period of years he had been the company's representative in Alton and the surrounding area.

Mr. Lane had for a long period been active in the politics of southern Illinois. He was a staunch Republican and just about thirty days ago was appointed postmaster. Because of a shortage of help in the office he had engaged in active work there devoting much of his time to the stamping machine, and it is the belief of his friends that the unusual physical exertion hastened his death.

The suddenness of Mr. Lane's going is indicated by the fact that he was the host of a party given Saturday night at the Illinois club in Alton, with employees of the postoffice as his guests. A man of unusually fine spirit and with pleasing personality, Mr. Lane enjoyed a wide popularity in southern Illinois, and the news of his death will be heard with sincere regret by a very large number of people.

SPEAKER IMPRESSED ADULT INFLUENCE

Dr. R. W. Gammon at Congregational Church Gave Inspiring Address on Unusual Theme.

Dr. R. W. Gammon was the speaker at the community forum at the Congregational church Sunday night. His theme was "Bringing Up Father" and by way of introduction the speaker told about a series of cartoons upon that same theme, which illustrate the fact that the saying, "You can't teach an old dog new tricks" is entirely applicable to the human race. The cartoons in question deal with the social life and adventures of a man and his wife suddenly wealthy, and the efforts of the wife to break into society.

As indicated the emphasis upon this series of cartoons was merely by way of illustration, and then in a very clear and impressive way the speaker went on to show that what the man is a few years hence depends very largely upon the training that the boy gets today.

Dr. Gammon impressed the thought that the home is the place for character building and that the attitude a man assumes toward his wife and children is very likely to be the attitude that his son will assume in the later years. The adults in the audience were made to feel anew the responsibility that is theirs as they live today and build character for the next generation. Comradeship with boys and girls brings about a better understanding. Much more can be accomplished by the effort to bring about a sympathetic understanding that can be attained merely by the exercise of authority.

Dr. Gammon, who has been heard in several addresses at the Congregational church, always uses apt illustrations and the consideration of the most serious themes is enlivened with sprightly stories.

At the close of the address Rev. G. E. Stickney voiced the appreciation of the audience for the opportunity of hearing the speaker. Before the address Mr. W. E. Kritch of the Conservatory of Music gave several delightful numbers.

FOUR HORSEMEN REAL THRILLER

Audience at Rialto Spellbound Over Most Wonderful Motion Picture—Special Music.

The motion picture, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," thrilled the audiences at the Rialto yesterday, and people sat spellbound throughout this wonderful production. The picture is taken from the book by the same name written by the Spaniard, Vicente Blasco Ibanez.

The story deals with the world war, the four horsemen representing conquest, war, pestilence and death. Upwards of 12,000 people were required to produce the picture and the cast interpreting the roles contains wonderful actors.

Rudolph Valentino, who was here last week in "The Sheik," and also in "Camille," played the principal part while Alice Terry is the woman star. The acting of both is superb. In the opinion of many theatre goers, the picture is the best ever shown in Jacksonville. Certainly it is one of the finest and the audience is kept at tension for almost three hours and only relaxes after the dramatic ending.

The beauty of the picture was further enhanced by the special music by a splendid orchestra. The music was appropriate to the picture, changing with each different scene and while extremely difficult was beautifully rendered.

The picture will be shown at the Rialto all this week.

MISS FRENCH MADE ADDRESS ON CHINA

Miss Mabel French, who has recently returned from six years' missionary service in China and is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas W. Smith, made an address at Westminster church Sunday morning. The purpose of the speaker was to give her auditors some knowledge about the country of China as a whole, the characteristics of the people and the work done by the churches there.

Miss French told of the extent of China, the density of the population and the great extent of the natural resources. Various incidents were related to indicate the gentleness of the spirit of the Chinese when led into a right understanding of life. Special emphasis was laid upon the responsibility of the U. S. because so many people in the young republic of China look upon the U. S. as an example and sigh for the day when the country can be like ours.

The address was made the more interesting and informing with the use of maps and charts.

DR. WALTER WATSON TO BE BURIED AT MT. VERNON

Dr. Walter Watson, who died recently in St. Louis, was taken to his home in Mt. Vernon, Ill., Monday for the funeral service which is to be held today. Dr. Watson died at the St. Louis hospital following a long illness. He expects the cable to be finished in two years.

The Italian government will allow a subvention of 3,000,000 annually. The cable will touch Spain, Brazil, Uruguay, Argentina and the Canary and Cape Verde Islands. The Italian government's control over it is limited to the extent of preventing its falling at any time into foreign hands.

SOME PROPERTY TRANSFERS

Otis Taylor has recently become the owner of a very excellent 200 acre farm located one mile northwest of Jacksonville. The farm was purchased several months ago from H. Hansmeier by Grant Graft. The transfer is part of a real estate deal in which several persons were interested.

F. J. Blackburn transferred to Mr. Graft an 80 acre farm near Manchester and a residence property on North Church street, a tract of land near Loomis, also having place in the transaction. Erizon & Taylor were the brokers.

WILL NOT BUILD BEFORE SPRING

The Brown Shoe company, which has been in communication with the Chamber of Commerce for some time in regard to building a branch factory here, will not do any expanding before spring.

In a recent letter to Secretary Welch of the Chamber of Commerce, they assured him that Jacksonville would have first opportunity to make a proposition in regard to a branch factory in the spring. The Brown Shoe company is a $16,000,000 concern, and one of their factories here would undoubtedly be the largest industry in the city.

FUNERAL NOTICE

Funeral services for George W. Hamilton will be held this morning at 8:30 at the Church of Our Savior. Interment will be made in Calvary cemetery.

Policy Meets Approval

At the very beginning our policy was to render a perfect service at the lowest possible cost.

After one year of my business career, I found the public had faith in my statements.

I have not entered the undertaking profession to see how quick I can become rich from your misfortunes, and with this purpose ever in mind I shall maintain the right prices regardless of others.

Judging from the position I have gained after one year, my policy of conducting my business meets with your approval. Without it I could not have met with success. I shall continue to protect my clients at all times from unjust charges.

"THE OATH"

From William J. Locke's Novel, "Idols"

A First National Attraction

As was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be—humanity transgresses and pays. But what are the paths of men and women who secretly bridge the gulf between two faiths? Here are two who swore their marriage—taking an oath never to reveal it—and stumbling into the abyss when their oath wrecked the bridge which Love had built. In "The Oath" we see drama outstripping in power and humaneness the finest stage or screen has ever given us. Scene after scene reveals the masterhand behind "The Oath." Even the captious will concede this great.

The list of candidates for nomination for county officers is increasing. The primary is fully 3 months in the future but it is safe to prophesy now that the election will be one of the most interesting in the history of the county, with an excellent list of possible officers offered to the voters for their selection.

Major Haynes, prohibition officer for the nation, makes very sensible statements about the law and does not rant in any analytical way. His statements and arguments give quite convincing proof that the law and law against prohibition is largely the result of wet propaganda, with the hope of bringing about the passage of a law satisfactory to the wet contingent.

The proposed program of aiding home builders in Jacksonville is practical. People without some money cannot expect to build and even with a part of the necessary funds they cannot build unless the remainder is secured in a loan.

REV. C. M. SHELDON GETS INTO HEADLINES

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Both the newspapers of today and the bible report crime, but the bible does it in the right way, the Rev. Charles Monroe Sheldon, editor of a religious weekly, declared tonight in an address before the Medill School of Journalism here.

Rev. Sheldon twenty years ago accepted the offer of the Topeka (Kan.) Capitol to conduct that newspaper for a week "as he thought Jesus would like to have it conducted" and the experiment aroused comment in all parts of the country. In comparing the methods of modern newspapers in handling crime items with that of the bible, the speaker pointed out that the bible gave only a few lines in telling of David's commission of adultery and murder but several pages to the prophet's rebuke.

ARBuckle's SECOND TRIAL IS UNDER WAY

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 9.—The second trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle was on the court calendar here today, but got no further than legal preliminaries. Arbuckle pleaded not guilty to a charge of manslaughter in connection with death of Miss Virginia Rappe injured at a party in his rooms at the Hotel St. Francis here.

By stipulation the case then was continued until next Wednesday by which time it is believed the perjury trial of Mrs. Minnie Neighbors, a witness in Arbuckle's first trial will have been completed.

ERIE SHARES REACH LOW MARK

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Liquidation of Erie railroad shares, which fell to lowest prices in more than 25 years, was one of the disturbing features of today's stock market session. Erie common declined to 7 against the previous low of 9 1/2; the first preferred fell to 11 1/8, or three points under its previous minimum and the second preferred at 7 1/8 showed a loss of 2 3/8 from its previous low record.

All three issues closed at feeble rallies.

Another reaction in Chicago & Northwestern which dropped almost two points to 59 its lowest price in 22 years added to the feeling of unsettlement in trading circles.

A "balanced diet" may sound confusing to many people

The facts, as explained here, are simple.

The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. These elements are protein, to nourish the tissues; starch and sugar to furnish energy; fat to supply heat; and mineral salts to provide the material necessary for building nerves, brain, and tooth and bone structure.

Grape-Nuts, the nourishing cereal made of whole wheat flour and malted barley, served with cream or milk, is a complete food for young and old alike.

Go to your grocer today and get a package of Grape-Nuts. Eat it with milk or cream for breakfast; or with stewed fruit, jelly or jam, as a delicious dessert for lunch or dinner.

Every member of the family will relish this palatable and nourishing food—

Streator, (Ill.) Newspaper Writer and Critic Gives Views on "Four Horsemen of Apocalypse," and States Why It Should be Seen.

The following is an editorial which appeared in the Independent-Times, of Streator, Ill., Thursday, January 5, with reference to the great picture showing at the Rialto theater in Jacksonville this week:

"There is a picture now running at the Rialto Theatre, called 'The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse' which every man, woman and young person, capable of reflection, should see once at least and perhaps twice.

"This is no advertisement for the Rialto, but is a suggestion that we need to be prodded semi-occasionally into a fuller consciousness of what war really means for the people directly engaged in it.

"We, in the United States of America knew precious little of the revolting horrors, the dirty mess of it all. And what we did realize of its exacting sacrifices we are prone to forget.

"You hear many people exclaim, 'I do not want to hear nor see anything more which reminds me of war.' They are the people who fancy that ignoring ugly things tends to eliminate them. There is a measure of truth in the contention, but when it comes to such an organized monstrosity as war, it takes more than the negative power to control it.

"Americans need to see the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse many times and read the book many more times. Ibanez is no charlatan of literature, but one of the masters of the age. A man who had vivid, gripping contacts with war and all its portents; a man of such penetrating intellect and searching vision he could paint in lurid and unforgettable power the hideousness and stupidity of the whole nauseating shambles.

"And it has been pictorialized in such superbly realistic manner you fairly seethe with the passions of its terrific momentum as it engulfs the whole world and the 'four horsemen' ride forth in all their fury and relentlessness to devour the fair and smiling universe.

"For the horrors of 1914 are still going on. And they will still go on until the heart and mind of mankind can grasp their tragic futility, their grotesque barbarism, their implacable fury which unendingly saps the very vitals and foundation of the sane normal order of a growing, progressive world."

INQUIRIES ON TAXES MUST BE LIMITED

Commission of Revenue at Olives Questions That Will Receive Attention of the Department:

To Editors: Following is a statement from Commissioner of Internal Revenue, David H. Blair, relating to the procedure with respect to inquiries received by the Bureau of Internal Revenue regarding tax liabilities:

"Requests are being received daily for rulings and advice upon abstract cases or prospective transactions, involving questions of income tax and profits liability. These requests are so numerous and the insistence on prompt action so great that it seems advisable at this time definitely to outline the Bureau's policy which will govern the consideration of these requests.

"The Revenue Acts of 1908 and 1921 depart widely at many points from prior law or practice, and have given rise to new questions of such importance, complexity, and number that the resources of the Bureau are no more than adequate to advise taxpayers promptly of their present liabilities arising out of past transactions. It is impossible to answer every question which the invention or ingenuity of the inquirer may advise without neglecting the fundamental duty of determining tax liability upon the basis of actual happenings. Under these circumstances, the administrative necessity is obvious of giving precedence over abstract or prospective cases to actual cases in which the taxpayer desires to know what are his immediate liabilities under the law.

"It will be the policy of the Bureau not to answer any inquiry except under the following circumstances:

"The transaction must be completed and not merely proposed or planned.

"The complete facts relating to the transaction, together with abstracts from contracts or other documents, necessary to present the complete facts, must be given.

C. OF C. MEETING TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Arrange to Meet at Peacock Inn at Noon—Will Have Proposition For Establishment of Shirt Factory to Consider.

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday noon at the Peacock Inn, instead of Thursday evening in the Chamber rooms, as usual. The directors are making this change this week in order to accommodate the Chicago manufacturer, who is contemplating opening a work shirt factory in the city. The Chicago man found it impossible to be here Thursday.

The new factory proposition came to the Chamber through J. Wier Elliott, of the Elliott State bank. He received the information thru F. R. Elliot, well known Chicago banker. Wednesday noon the directors will hear the proposition and if favorably inclined, it will mean a large industry for the city.

The proposed factory will employ five hundred persons when it is running, and will add greatly to the industrial prestige of the city.

JESS TOOK LAST CHANCE

"After three years of doctoring for my stomach I became discouraged and swore I wouldn't take anything else. I was bloated with gas all the time. Someone praised Mayr's Wonderful Remedy so highly that I decided to take a chance. I am now feeling like a new man." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.—Adv.

DEMAND LOANS FALL

IN FINAL HOURS
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Selling of the general list, with few exceptions, made further progress in the stock market today. Extreme reactions of one to three points were effected on comparatively small offerings.
Little attention was given to the continued ease of money on call and time, the strength of the foreign exchanges and the encouraging tone of advices from agricultural centers.
Demand loans opened at four per cent, falling to 2 1/2 at midday and to three per cent in the final hours.
Another cut in Pennsylvania oil prices and bearish developments, pertaining to industrial, mercantile and transportation conditions precipitated the reaction in which professional shorts again rendered assistance.
Oils of all grades supplied fully 25 per cent of the day's business.
Strength of Reading first and second preferred was in striking contrast to the trend of other coals.
Further consideration of the proposed economic conference at Genoa contributed to the strength of international remittances.
Sterling rose almost two cents and virtually all other European bills,
Italy alone excepted, advanced 5 to 50 points.
